Island View Casino Fact Sheet

Grand opening: September 18, 2006

Second-phase
Opening Date: Monday, May 14, 2007

Location: 40 acres of waterfront property in Gulfport, Miss.

Overview: Island View Casino Resort, a privately held casino by local businessmen Terry Green and Rick Carter, will be Gulfport's only gaming property and one of the Mississippi Gulf Coast's largest casinos upon completion. Carter and Green owned the Copa Casino, which was located in Gulfport's port before being destroyed by Hurricane Katrina. After the storm, the two gaming executives purchased Harrah's Grand Casino Gulfport, and pursued a longtime vision of developing one of the region's highest quality resorts, featuring first-class amenities and state-of-the-art gaming.

Resort features:
